There are four kinds of sentences. Each kind requires a specific ending punctuation.

- A declarative sentence is a statement. It ends with a period (.).
   Many kinds of penguins are found in Antarctica.
- An interrogative sentence asks a question. It ends with a question mark (?).

Do all penguins live on that icy continent?

An imperative sentence commands someone to do something.
 It ends with a period (.).

Sit down here and listen to me.

 An exclamatory sentence shows strong feeling. It ends with an exclamation mark (!).

What a big surprise!

Kinds of Sentences

End It Right

declarative – tells something interrogative – asks something imperative – commands or requests something exclamatory – expresses strong feeling

Add the correct end punctuation to each sentence. Identify each sentence by type.

- School Web sites are cool

  Many schools have fascinating and informative Web sites

  Does your school have a Web site
- Creating a school Web site is fun
- Create one for your school
- Your school's computer teacher can help you get started
- Start by creating a colorful home page
- Some school Web sites include information on school events, special class projects, and school policies
- What would you like to see on your school's Web site
- Make it happen

Punctuate a Paragraph

Add the correct end punctuation to the sentences in the following paragraph.

Wartime Inventions

<sup>1</sup> Have you ever wondered about the origins of common household products

Now name the types of sentences used in the paragraph above: declarative (statements), interrogative (questions), imperative (commands), and exclamatory (strong feelings). Write your responses on the lines provided.

Every complete sentence has a subject and a predicate.

Subject—names the person, place, or thing the sentence is about.
 The complete subject contains all the words that tell who or what the sentence is about.

The simple subject is the main noun or pronoun in the subject.

simple subject

Our crazy dog howled at the wind.

complete subject

Predicate—tells what the subject is or does.

The complete predicate contains all the words that tell what the subject is or does.

The simple predicate is the verb of the sentence.

simple predicate

Eric and Marshall raced down the street.

complete predicate

Subjects & Predicates

Grammar and Punctuation, Grade 6 • EMC 2716

Find the Subject

Underline the complete subject in each sentence. Circle the simple subject in each sentence.

- My best friend lives in Thailand.
- Her name is Roongthip.
- Roongthip's name means "Rainbow" in Thai.
- Roongthip's culture is different from mine.
- Thai money looks different from United States money.
- The Thai language uses a different alphabet.
- Thai foods use different spices from those I am used to.
- Thai cities are filled with intricate architecture.
- Roongthip's world is different from mine.
- My friend and I love learning about each other's cultures.

Find the Predicate

Underline the complete predicate in each sentence. Circle the simple predicate in each sentence.

- My school offers many extra clubs and classes.
- My brother plays chess with the chess club.
- My friend Sam plays baseball.
- I sing with the school choir.
- Members of the Community Service Club visit elderly people who live alone.
- They also pick up litter around our town.
- Members of the journalism class write our school newspaper.
- The school marching band marches in parades.
- The pep band plays at football games.
- Everyone participates in something special at our school.

Sentence or Not?

Decide whether each group of words below is a complete sentence. If the group of words is a complete sentence, capitalize the first letter of the first word and add the correct end punctuation. If the group of words is not a complete sentence, add a subject or predicate to create a complete sentence using the group of words presented.

karen is going to Disneyland this	summer
love strawberries
my uncle and my cousins
fifteen students from Mr. Fitch's cl	lass

the greatest country in the world
he's lost

A compound sentence is made by putting together two or more simple sentences containing related information.

- The parts are usually joined by a conjunction such as and, or, or but.*
- A comma is placed before the conjunction.

Simple sentences:

It began to rain.

Our field trip was canceled.

Simple sentences:

I have been studying the spelling words every night.

I expect to get a good grade on the test Friday.

Compound sentence:

It began to rain, and our field trip was canceled.

Compound sentence:

I have been studying the spelling words every night, and I expect to get a good grade on the test Friday.

*See Notes to the Teacher on page 103 for additional information.

Compound Sentences

Study Compound Sentences

Underline the complete subject once and the complete predicate twice in each part of the compound sentences. Circle the conjunction in each sentence.

- Movies are exciting, but books are better.
- I like summer vacation, yet I am always glad when school starts again.
- We enjoy the beautiful sights in San Francisco, so we chose to vacation in that city.
- I went to the bank, and then I did my shopping.
- Art museums are fun to visit, but you need to be prepared to spend the day in them.
- Beautiful flowers blossom, and then they fade away.
- Race dogs are fast, but race horses are faster.
- English class is hard for me, but math class is easy.
- Frightening tornadoes destroy property, and earthquakes are devastating too.
- Martha and Jerry will go to the beach today, or the friends will watch a movie.

Create Compound Sentences

Use conjunctions to combine each pair of simple sentences into a compound sentence. Place a comma before each conjunction.

I love hamburgers. I hate hot dogs. I may go to Mexico this summer. I may go to France. After school I'm going shopping. I'm going to buy a new backpack. Christmas is my favorite holiday. I also enjoy Thanksgiving. Your birthday is on Monday. We'll celebrate this Sunday afternoon. The Little Mermaid is a great book. The Frog Prince is even better.

Simple or Compound?

Sometimes conjunctions appear in simple sentences. Decide whether each of the sentences is simple or compound. Circle your response. Remember, compound sentences contain two simple sentences connected by a conjunction.

In his lifetime, Jefferson Davis worked both for and against the United States of America.	simple	compound
<ol><li>He served in the army and as a congressman, senator, and secretary of war.</li></ol>	simple	compound
<ol> <li>As a senator, Jefferson Davis spoke in favor of slavery and states' rights, but he did not support the idea of secession from the Union.</li> </ol>	simple	compound
<ol> <li>Then his home state of Mississippi seceded, and he resigned his position as senator.</li> </ol>	simple	compound
5. He ordered the South's attack on Fort Sumter, and he became president of the Confederate States of America.	simple	compound
<ol> <li>He was elected for a six-year term, but he was not popular with many of the people who voted for him.</li> </ol>	simple	compound
7. His leadership and his war tactics were questioned.	simple	compound
8. In 1865 Jefferson Davis was captured and imprisoned.	simple	compound
Eventually, he was indicted for treason, but the     United States government dropped the charges.	simple	compound

10.	Mickey Mouse	proper / common	plural / singular
11.	books	proper / common	plural / singular
12.	Al Daniels	proper / common	plural / singular

Capitalize Properly

Write all the proper nouns from the sentences. Remember to capitalize each proper noun. Doris cooksey works for the american family insurance company. Her office is in denver, colorado. Since she lives in bailey, colorado, she commutes to work. Doris drives a colt vista to work each day. She picks up her co-workers dennis, francisco, and ramona along the way. From the train station, the commuters take peterson street to reach their office. For lunch, doris and her friends often walk to a nearby burger hut.

Doris and ramona usually eat salads.

Francisco and dennis always order a mega burger.

Doris and her co-workers enjoy their jobs in denver and their homes in bailey.

Locate the Nouns

Underline all the nouns in the sentences below. Then rewrite the proper nouns on the lines. Be sure to capitalize the proper nouns. Some sentences may contain no proper nouns.

Tobias and nolan like to listen to the oldies. Nolan's favorite group is the beach boys. Tobias likes simon and garfunkel. The boys like to watch old movies too. Nolan's favorite actor is james stewart. Tobias likes to watch joan crawford movies. 8) Nolan and tobias like to visit old ghost towns. They also like to play old card games like old maid and go fish. The boys' favorite books are all classics like tom sawyer. Maybe tobias and nolan will be historians when they grow up.

Use these rules to make plural nouns.

To make the plural of most nouns, add s. automobiles

If a noun ends in s, sh, ch, x, or z, add es.
 benches

 If a noun ends in a consonant followed by a y, berries change y to i and add es.

If a noun ends in f or fe,
 add s to some;
 change f to v and add es to others.

chiefs
loaves

Some nouns do not change when they become plural.

deer sheep moose salmon

Some nouns have irregular plural forms.

singular	plural
child	children
goose	geese
mouse	mice
tooth	teeth
ox	oxen

Plural Noun Forms

Regular Plural Nouns

Complete the paragraph using the plural forms for the missing nouns.

Michaela and her mother shop	pea ai inree _	(store)	on Christmas Eve.
At the first stop, they bought six Christm	nas(gift)	Their six	(bax)

Irregular Plurals

A Write the plural form of these words that do not follow the common rules of making plurals. You may use a dictionary to help you.

	Plural Form		Plural Form
1. deer		7. woman
2. moose _		8. man
3. person _		9. sheep
4. cactus _	AS:	10. axis
5. hypothesis _		11. series
6. crisis _		12. foot

B Now make up nouns of your own to name the five things listed below. Invent the singular and plural form of each new word. Circle regular if your new plural noun is regular or irregular if it is irregular.

	I'll call it a	The plural form will be an underwater roller coaster	8		regular irregular
a newly discovered fish breed			regular irregular
3. a new food			regular irregular
4. a rock type found on Ma	ars	8	regular irregular

Put Together Plurals

	Write sentences using the plural forms of the following words.
	party cake
2.	cow calf
3.	wish belief
4.	strawberry patch
5.	series game
6.	rule policy
7.	dentist tooth
8.	duck goose
9.	man woman
10.	foot child

A verb is a word in the predicate that tells physical or mental action or a state of being.

· There are three kinds of verbs:

Action verbs tell what the subject is doing.

Linking verbs link a subject to a noun or an adjective that names or describes it.

Helping verbs come before the main verb. Helping verbs help state the action or show time. We played until it was dark. Everyone laughed at the funny movie.

Their dog is a Saint Bernard. The buffered popcorn smells delicious.

Arnold will paint the door tomorrow. He has been painting the frame today.

The verb in a sentence must agree in number with the subject.
 If the subject is singular, the verb must be singular.

Iced lemonade is refreshing on a hot day.

If the subject is plural, the verb must be plural.

Apple pies are delicious with vanilla ice cream.

Identify Verb Types

Circle all the action verbs in the sentences. Underline all the linking verbs. Draw a box around all the helping verbs.

- Mrs. Baker is forty-two years old.
- She works at an automobile manufacturing plant in Michigan.
- She has been working there for twenty years.
- In twenty more years, she will retire.
- Mr. Baker was forty-two years old last year.
- He is a year older than Mrs. Baker.
- He is employed at a school library.
- He finds books for students.
- He has been helping students for fifteen years.
- He likes his job.
- He will work in the library for twenty more years.
- Then he and Mrs. Baker will travel around the country.

Linking or Action?

Some verbs can be used as either a linking or an action verb. Decide how the verbs in the sentences below are used. Circle your responses.

> Tom smells apple pie. The apple pie smells good.

action action

linking linking

	Bill feels uncomfortable giving speeches.	action	linking
	Martha feels the fur on her new bunny.	action	linking
2.	Karena looked for her lost book all morning.	action	linking
	Terri looked happy at her birthday party.	action	linking
3.	Sandy turned the corner at Fifth Street.	action	linking
	The weather turned stormy in the afternoon.	action	linking
4.	The magician made the coin appear behind my ear.	action	linking
	The dogs at the show appear smart.	action	linking
5.	It grew quiet in the house after the kids went to bed.	action	linking
	Samantha grew two inches last summer.	action	linking
6.	The tacos at the restaurant tasted good.	action	linking
	Kim tasted the cookie dough before baking the cookies.	action	linking

Subject-Verb Agreement

Circle the verb in each sentence that agrees in number with the subject.

- Thanksgiving (has have) always been my favorite holiday.
- My entire family (get gets) together on Thanksgiving.
- We all (enjoys enjoy) a huge feast.
- Aunt Mary (bring brings) the hot rolls.
- Grandma and Grandpa (bake bakes) the pumpkin pies.
- My cousin Tony always (gives give) me his cranberry sauce.
- He (let lets) my brother eat his applesauce.
- Sauces (is are) not Tony's favorite part of the meal.
- My aunts (takes take) turns washing dishes after dinner.
- Then the whole gang (play plays) games for hours.
- Tony and my brother (likes like) to play chess.
- I always (plays play) cards with my aunts and uncles.
- Mom and Dad usually (throw throws) darts.
- Everyone (find finds) something fun to do.
- My family never (want wants) to go home on Thanksgiving.

The tense of a verb tells when an action occurs present, past, or future.

- present—the action is happening now.
   Mieko is practicing the piano.
- past—the action already happened.
   She played for her teacher yesterday.
- future—the action is going to happen.
   She will give a concert when she learns three more pieces.

When Did It Happen?

Underline the verb or verb phrase in each sentence below. Write the tense of the underlined verb on the line.

		Verb Tense
	A.A. Milne lived from 1882 until 1956.
2.	He was an author of plays, essays, short stories, and adult and children's fiction.
	Milne is remembered for his characterization of Winnie the Pooh.
4.	Pooh and his friends Tigger, Eeyore, and Piglet are loved by children and adults alike.
5.	Winnie the Pooh stories are classics.
6.	They will continue to be popular in the future.
	Judy Blume is another author who writes for both children and adults.
2.	Her children's stories are known more than her adult novels.
3.	Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing was written in 1972.
4.	It was very popular when it first came out.
5.	It is still popular today.
6.	People will call it a classic in the future.

Tense Writing

Use context clues to help you select the correct verb tense in these sentences.

- Mr. Parker (worked works) in a bank for forty years before he retired last month.
- Now he (hopes will hope) to catch up on his woodworking projects.
- He (has will have) always liked to build furniture.
- For his son's birthday in three months, he (hopes hoped) to have a bookshelf built.
- He (builds built) his son a desk for his last birthday.
- He will have more time to work on this year's gift since he (has had) retired.
- School (did will) let out for summer in six weeks.
- Then kids in the neighborhood (will spend are spending) their time at the town's swimming pool.
- Every year the pool (is was) especially crowded on the first day of summer.
- Kevin (moved moves) to the neighborhood three months ago.
- He (has will have) never been to the pool before.
- He (hopes hoped) to swim often this summer with his new friends.

Locate the Verbs

Underline the verbs in the paragraphs below. Write a P above the verb if it happened in the past. Write PR above the verb if it happens in the present. Write an F above the verb if it will happen in the future.

Thomas loves to play the piano. He took his first lesson at the age of five. He practices for an hour each day. He especially likes to play classical music. He first heard classical music when he began his lessons. At a concert tomorrow night, he will play his favorite piece, Mozart's "Allegro." The audience will enjoy the concert because Thomas is an excellent pianist.

Stacy is in her town's parade every July. Last year she marched with her school band.

This year she is riding her horse. Next year she will find something else to do because she loves to be a part of the parade.

Dana is organizing a talent show at her school. She invited her brother to emcee the event. She asked five of her teachers to judge the show. Now she is getting her friends to sign up for different acts. So far, people have signed up for three singing acts, one comedy performance, and two dancing routines. There will be more sign-ups before the night of the show. Audience and performers alike will have a great time at the show!

In 1901 the determined Dr. Rupert Blue set out to kill every rat in San Francisco.

The beautiful city had been struck with the deadly bubonic plague. Dr. Blue planned to destroy the frightening disease by killing the pesky rats that carried it. He decided to get rid of ugly dirt and garbage that served as the foul rats' homes and food sources.

Many people in the large city helped him. Busy merchants cleaned their crowded stores.

Concerned homemakers covered smelly household garbage in airtight metal cans. City workers poisoned sewer rats. School children scrubbed and mopped their classrooms.

Butchers concreted the dirt floors of their meat plants. After seven years of work, city officials hosted an outdoor banquet to prove their city streets were now "clean enough to eat from."

By 1909, about two million rats had been killed. The happy city was declared free of the horrible bubonic plaque.

Comma Usage

Introductory Commas

Add commas where they are needed to the dialog.

Kevin I didn't expect to see you here. What a surprise!

Yes I'm meeting some of my friends from school for dinner.

Well do you come here often?

Yes as a matter of fact I do. I just love their desserts. You've got to try their blueberry pie Rhonda.

No I have my heart set on the chocolate chip cheesecake tonight.

Okay but next time you'll have to try the pie. It is absolutely awesome!

I promise you Kevin I'll try the blueberry pie next time I come.

You won't regret it Rhonda. Look there's Gordon!

Wow I haven't seen him in such a long time!

Hey is that Micah? I hope so because I'm ready to eat!

Well it was nice to see you Kevin. Have fun with your friends tonight.

Thanks! I will. See you later Rhonda.

Questions and Commas

Answer the following questions in complete sentences, using one of the introductory words given. Add commas where they are needed.

I through his window?
1?

Rephrase It

Restate the following sentences twice. In the first restatement, move the name to the middle of the sentence. In the second restatement, move the name to the end of the sentence. Remember to place commas where they are needed. The first one has been completed for you as an example.

ı	Mom, please turn on the light.
	Please, Mom, turn on the light.
	Please turn on the light, Mom.
	Grandma, may I help you bake a cake?
	Thomas, I think your fever has finally broken.

August 12 2001

Dear Grandma

Thanks for inviting my friends and me to your house next week. Mary Lisa and I expect to arrive around 600 p.m. on Sunday night. We will leave home around 600 a.m. on Saturday morning. Mary will drive from Denver Colorado to Omaha Nebraska. We'll find some place to clean up eat dinner and sleep a few hours. We should be back on the road by 600 a.m. Sunday morning. Lisa will drive from Omaha to Garrett. Because we'll be arriving around suppertime we'll bring fast food from Charlie's Burgers in Garrett to share with you.

Last time we spoke you asked what we might like to do while vacationing in the Midwest. The following is a list of places we would like to visit

Auburn Cord-Duesenberg Museum

Sandusky's sand dunes

Cedarpoint Amusement Park

Although we would like to go to all the places on the list we really just want to spend time with you. Can't wait to see you!

Love

Doris

- Isaac Asimov titles include the following_ The Foundation Trilogy_ Foundation and Earth_ and The Naked Sun.
- The prolific writer and esteemed scientist died on April 6_ 1992.

Use commas to set apart an appositive from the rest of the sentence.

An appositive is a word or phrase that renames the noun or pronoun before it."

appositive

Mrs. Burton, a high school teacher, was at the ceremony.

appositive

Carter, a math whiz, won an award.

appositive

Our principal, Mr. Grant, presented the awards.

Set Apart Appositives

Set apart the appositives in these sentences by adding commas where they are needed.

- Mary Dyer a Quaker was killed in 1660 for living in Boston a city that once prohibited Quaker residency.
- The 1931 Nobel Peace Prize winner Jane Addams founded Hull House a social service settlement in Chicago.
- Dorothy Day the author established "hospitality houses" for Great Depression victims during the 1930s.

Locate Appositives

Circle the appositives in the paragraphs below.

Dekalb High School, my sister's school, celebrated graduation last Saturday. My sister was not in the graduating class, but her friend, Tamara White, was. My sister and I attended the ceremony. Mr. Dean, the president of a local college, gave a speech, "Life on the Outside."

It was a humorous look at being a young adult.

Following Mr. Dean's speech, awards were presented. The school's computer whiz,

Martin Elliott, won an academic award. Linda Baker, student body president, won a spirit award. The winner of the community service award was my sister's friend, Tamara, who set up programs at the school for recycling, visiting the elderly, and beautifying the campus.

Finally Mr. Kraft, the principal, presented diplomas. Because Tamara's last name,

White, is at the end of the alphabet, she received her diploma last. Then the graduates tossed their hats, and my sister and I clapped loudly for Tamara, a good friend of my sister.

Write with Appositives

The sentences below all contain spaces for appositives and other information. Fill in the spaces based on facts from your own life. The first one has been completed for you as an example.

	My mom, Doris Cooksey	lives in Colorad	0.
2.	My favorite movie,		, stars

A direct quotation has specific rules of punctuation and capitalization.

Quotation marks are placed before and after a speaker's exact words.
 "What a wonderful surprise!" exclaimed Mr. Chang.

"Did you make that mess in the kitchen?" asked Dwight's mother.

Capitalize the first word of each sentence in a quotation.
 Roberto chanted, "We won the game! We won the game!"

"You boys should be very proud of yourselves," the coach remarked.
"You have practiced very hard."

 We usually use a comma to separate the quotation from the rest of the sentence.

"This is a good book," stated Tony.
Tony stated, "This is a good book."

Add Quotation Marks

Add quotation marks to these sentences. Underline the speaker.

- Tom asked, Did you write this story, Jim?
- Yes, Jim replied. It was an assignment for English class.
- It is a very good story, Jim, Tom said. Do you mind if I share it with my friends?
- While smiling shyly, Jim stammered, That would be fine, Tom.
- Would you like to come to my birthday party, Shelly? asked Katie.
- That would be fun, Shelly responded. What would you like as a gift?
- I like arts and crafts supplies, Katie replied.
- Then I know just the gift for you! Shelly exclaimed.
- Where have you been? complained Jacob. We have all been waiting for you!
- I had to take care of my little brother, Tyler explained.
- Oh, I forgot about that! Nelson said. I was supposed to tell you that before, Jacob. I'm sorry

  I forgot to relay your message, Tyler.
- That's okay, said Tyler. I'm here now, so let's start the movie.

Correct Quotations

Rewrite each sentence, adding quotation marks around each person's exact words. Use capital letters and other punctuation marks where they are needed.

when does the dinner party start mom asked larry that was the best movie i've ever seen exclaimed marcus. before the big test my teacher reminded us erase your first choice completely if you decide to change your answer. marty said she would be here by three o'clock cecil reported. royal said i like to play table tennis the whole team chanted we are the champions we are the champions have you ever been to this restaurant before tiasha cindy asked you will get a good grade on today's test i told myself.

To Quote or Not to Quote?

Some of the following sentences contain direct quotes. Some of them do not. Add capital letters, commas, and quotation marks only where they are necessary. Some sentences require no changes.

- Mr. Fires said he should have our car fixed by Friday afternoon.
- Mrs. Fields reminded me you don't have to get a perfect score; you just have to do your best.
- Candy explained I was named after my aunt, not after a food!
- Tony asked if I could help him with his homework.
- Fred told me never to touch an electrical appliance with wet hands.
- Samatha told me my grandmother will be in town next week.
- This is an excellent CD Anthony proclaimed.
- Uncle Jack told me he would be in town next week.
- Mom told me don't tell Dad what we got him for Christmas.
- Nancy said she was planning to attend the Petersons' housewarming party.

Titles of books, movies, plays, and magazines, songs, stories, etc., are treated in specific ways.

- Capitalize the first word, the last word, and every word in between except for articles (the, a, an), short prepositions, and short conjunctions.
- Night of the Twisters

  In the Year of the Boar and Jackie Robinson

  A Pizza the Size of the Sun
- When you write in handwriting, underline the titles of books, movies, plays, and television programs, and the names of newspapers and magazines.

The Lost World (movie)

Smoky Night (book)

National Geographic (magazine)

 If you are using a word processor, use italics instead of underlining. The Lost World (movie)

Smoky Night (book)

National Geographic (magazine)

 Use quotation marks around the titles of stories, magazine articles, essays, songs, and most poems. "America" (song)

"Kayaking in Canada" (article)

"The Highwayman" (poem)

Titles

Punctuate Titles

Rewrite these sentences using the correct punctuation for each title.

I wrote a poem called "mine," which will be included in our school's literary journal, panther pride.

Write Titles

Complete these sentences by writing titles. Be sure to underline titles of books, magazines, newspapers, movies, and television shows. Use quotation marks for stories, magazine articles, essays, songs, and poems.

would be a great name for a song about traveling.
One of my favorite movies is entitled
A magazine article about training horses might be entitled
A magazine dedicated to medical issues might be entitled in my community.
I once wrote a story in school called
Someone I know loves to watch the television program
An essay on the importance of cooperation might be called

Negative words and the pronouns I, me, they, and them follow specific usage rules.

A negative is a word that means no or not. Use only one negative in a sentence.

Correct:

I didn't bring any lunch today.

I have no lunch today.

Incorrect:

I didn't bring no lunch today.

Use I and they in the subject.

I need to be home by six o'clock.

They won't be able to come to the game.

Use me and them in the predicate or after a preposition.

Will you help me bake some cookies? George took a trip to Marine World with them.

Name yourself last.

Morris and I like to build unusual kites.

Would you like to go to the park with Sam and me?

Notes to the Teacher

Rule 3, page 11

The rule states that compound sentences are usually joined by conjunctions. A semicolon may also replace a comma and conjunction in a compound sentence.

Simple sentences: He broke the window.

It was an accident.

Compound sentence: He broke the window; it was an accident.

Rule 8, page 31

The present tense endings s and es are used only with third person singular nouns and pronouns (he, she, it, Grandma, Mr. Jones, etc.). The distinction between first person and third person may need to be explained to non-native speakers.

Rule 18, page 71

- Note that the use of a comma to separate the two independent clauses of a compound sentence is addressed in Rule 3.
- 2. Here are two tests to use to determine if adjectives are modifying a noun equally:
  - Put and between the adjectives. If the sentence sounds correct, use a comma.

It's time to get rid of those smelly, old sneakers.

It's time to get rid of those smelly and old sneakers.

land sounds OK, so use a comma)

Three big dogs are digging in the sand.

Three and big dogs are digging in the sand.

(and sounds odd, so do not use a comma)

Switch the order of the adjectives. If the sentence sounds correct, the adjectives modify equally.

It's time to get rid of those smelly, old sneakers.

It's time to get rid of those old, smelly sneakers.

(sounds OK: use a comma)

Three big dogs are digging in the sand. Big three dogs are digging in the sand. (sounds odd; do not use a comma)

Notes to the Teacher (continued)

Rule 20, page 79

In running text, a comma follows as well as precedes both the year and the state, province, or country.

The events of April 18, 1775, have long been celebrated in song and story.

The electrical storms in Flagstaff, Arizona, are no less than spectacular.

Rule 25, page 99

Well is often confused with good.

Good is an adjective, and well is usually an adverb.

She is a good musician. She plays both the piano and the guitar well.

I received a good grade on the social studies test. All the time spent studying served me well.

Both well and good are correct in this instance.

"After all that food, I don't feel well," groaned Melvin.
"I don't feel good, either," complained Marvin.

Although both well and good are correct here, the meaning in sentence two may be unclear.

You don't look well. (You look sick.)

You don't look good. (It could be that you look sick, or it could be that your appearance isn't appealing.)

1301 W. Quincy Street Garrett, Indiana August 12, 2001

Dear Grandma.

Thanks for inviting my friends and me to your house next week. Mary, Lisa, and I expect to arrive around 6:00 p.m. on Sunday night. We will leave home around 6:00 a.m. on Saturday morning. Mary will drive from Denver, Colorado, to Omaha, Nebraska. We'll find some place to clean up, eat dinner, and sleep a few hours. We should be back on the road by 6:00 a.m. Sunday morning. Lisa will drive from Omaha to Garrett. Because we'll be arriving around suppertime, we'll bring fast food from Charlie's Burgers in Garrett to share with you.

Last time we spoke, you asked what we might like to do while vacationing in the Midwest. The following is a list of places we would like to visit:

Auburn Cord-Duesenberg Museum Sandusky's sand dunes

Cedarpoint Amusement Park

> Love, Doris
